A Terrific Cyclone Visits a Portion of the State.

Much Damage Done in the Eastern Portion of Jefferson County.

Its Path Was About Two Hundred Yards Wide in Some Places and Not More Than One Hundred in Others—Everything Swept Before It.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Oct. 31.—Reports of a terrific cyclone which passed through the eastern part of Jefferson county Thursday evening reached this city Friday. The full extent of the storm can not be ascertained, but it is known to have been quite extensive. It struck first near Sherrill at 11:45 o'clock Thursday forenoon, passing from south to north. Its path was about two hundred yards wide in some places and not more than one hundred in others. Nothing stood before it and barns, houses, fences, stock and forests were carried along in its terrible vortex. Two occupants of the house were injured in the Smith place. One large log residence, containing a family of six, was also scattered, but the occupants who were in the house at the time miraculously escaped death. Fifteen or more people, most of them Negroes, were more or less injured.

Going Home to Vote.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—Secretary of the Interior Francis will leave Friday night or Saturday for his home in Missouri. First Postmaster General Jones has gone to his home, Springfield, Ill., and Mr. Lamereaux, commissioner of the general land office, has gone to Wisconsin. All will vote on Tuesday.

McKinley's Campaign Closed.
CANTON, O., Oct. 31.—With Saturday's demonstration the work of the campaign at Maj. McKinley's home was practically closed. The names of only a few visiting delegations appeared on the schedule for Saturday.

Accidentally Shot by His Wife.
VANDALIA, Ill., Oct. 31.—Edward Armstrong went quail hunting, accompanied by his wife, Mrs. Armstrong, who was using a hammerless gun, accidentally shot her husband, the charge entering his head, killing him instantly.

Ohio Man's Sad Death.
PEORIA, Ill., Oct. 31.—Paul DeForest, a young man who came here a few weeks ago from Springfield, O., was found dead in bed Friday morning. He was engaged to marry a young lady of Peoria, the wedding to have taken place within a few days.

NEGRO FACTIONS

Cause a Riot at a Political Meeting in Norfolk, Va.—Several Wounded.

NORFOLK, Va., Oct. 31.—At a colored political meeting on Scott street Friday night a riot was precipitated between two Negro factions, one of which is supporting Col. Wise, the regular republican nominee, while the others Whally, the gold democrat. The meeting was barely opened before the disorder began. Brickbats were the arguments of the Wise men and they quickly became masters of the situation after which they proceeded to demolish the hall. During the bombardment of the building by rocks, several persons were hurt badly by the flying missiles. Two policemen who attempted to restore order, were roughly handled by the mob and one of them was badly injured. Reinforcements arrived at police headquarters, however, and the mob was dispersed but not before two other officers were slightly injured.

HEAVY BET.

The Largest Bonafide Wager of the Campaign About Completed.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Col., Oct. 31.—The biggest bonafide bet of the present campaign is about to be concluded here. W. S. Stratton, the millionaire mine owner, a few days ago offered to take a bet of $100,000 on Bryan against $900,000 on McKinley. Letters were received here Friday that the bet had been taken and that the money is in the Chemical national bank of New York, placed there by well known men of that city. Mr. Stratton has placed his money in the First national bank of this city and the New York man is expected Saturday. Stratton has agreed that if he wins the wager he will place the winnings to the credit of the Colorado Springs free reading library.

AFTER A QUARREL

An Ohio Woman Lays Down in Front of an Approaching Freight Train.

UPPER SANDUSKY, O., Oct. 31.—Mr. and Mrs. John Fener, living near the town, started to drive to Kirby. En route they quarreled. Mr. Fener said he would go no further, but would return home. He did so, and his wife got out and walked to Kirby. She there proceeded to the track of the Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne & Chicago railway, and waiting for the approach of fast freight No. 60, deliberately stepped upon the track and lay down. The engineer saw her and reversed the engine, but too late. The woman was struck and received injuries that resulted in her death Friday afternoon.

Assassinated in an Unknown Place.
BENTON, Ky., Oct. 31.—Daisy Sullivan, aged 18 years, daughter of J. M. Sullivan, living four miles north of here, was assassinated by an unknown man. Bloodhounds are on his trail.

OHIO'S CAPITOL

Plans for the Enlargement of the Statehouse Selected.

They Contemplate One Wing on the North Side and One on the South.

First Floor of the North Wing for the Executive Department—Judiciary Department in the South Wing—The $400,000 Appropriation is Insufficient.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 31.—The state house improvement committee has selected the architectural plan presented by Yost & Packard, of this city, for the enlargement of the building. This plan contemplates the erection of two wings, one on the north and one on the south side of the old building, an elevation of the dome and an addition to the portico and esplanade at the west side, but no third story.

In the south, or State street wing, there is to be located the judiciary department, including quarters for the supreme court judges, the supreme court reporter, the law library, the attorney general's offices, consultation rooms for the attorneys, and a courtroom for the hearing of arguments. These various offices and rooms of the supreme court are to occupy both floors of this wing.

The first floor of the north wing is to be occupied by the executive department, including five rooms for the governor and his clerks, by the adjutant general, the United States inspector of the Ohio National guard, the board of public works and the canal commissioner. On the second floor of the north wing are to be located the state library, the museum of battle relics, etc., the flag room and a number of additional legislative committee rooms. The legislative halls are to remain as at present, and the supreme courtroom now in use is to be devoted to a public auditorium. The departments in the old building are to be rearranged and enlarged throughout.

The style of architecture of the present building is to be preserved on the exterior, but will differ within. The wings are to front east and west, to correspond with the present building, and are to be connected with it by arcades leading from the north and south entrances of the old structure.

The plans provide for the use of the same kind of building stone as that in the present capitol. The $400,000 already appropriated will be sufficient, the committee says, to build one of the wings. The erection of the other elevation of the dome, etc., must be delayed until there is an additional appropriation. The committee adjourned to November 9, at which time it will enter into a formal contract with the architects and also fix the compensation of the members of the permanent building commission which Gov. Bushnell is to thereupon appoint.

CASTLES' DEFENSE.

Alleged Shoplifters Will Depend on Expert Testimony to Clear Them.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—The case of Walter M. Castle, the San Francisco merchant, and his wife on a charge of shoplifting, preferred by various west end dealers, is on the docket for Monday next but only the solicitors for the case will appear at the time, and there will without doubt be a postponement. It is expected that the case will be definitely fixed for Thursday, when the trial is likely to proceed without interruption.

It is decided that the defense in Mrs. Castle's case shall be based on medical testimony. In addition to the explicit affidavit of a San Francisco doctor, who was familiar with Mrs. Castle's case, testimony will be offered of Dr. George Henry Savage, lecturer on mental diseases at Guy's hospital and author of a manual on insanity, and Dr. Gregg and Dr. L. M. Gabriel, who are among the most eminent in London on women's diseases. Dr. Scott, the attending physician at Holloway jail, who had Mrs. Castle under his charge there, will also show that she was suffering from a woman's ailment, which would account for her mania.

FLAG DAY.

It is Universally Observed in Cincinnati—Bunting Galore.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 31.—After the closing hours of business Friday night thousands and thousands of flags were thrown to the breeze in the business portion of the city in anticipation of the flag day celebration throughout the city Saturday and in honor of the great public demonstration and parade. Many of the large establishments on the principal thoroughfares are profusely decorated, and the city presents the appearance of a gay day. Fourth street, from one end to the other, is one solid mass of colors. Flags float from every window and every door. They are seen protruding from over the roofs and at frequent intervals the stars and stripes in huge emblems of the banner of the country are suspended over the center of the streets. The same may be said of other portions of the city. All business houses closed at 12 o'clock.

Corbin Estate Sued.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—Miss Mathilde Nelson has begun suit for the recovery of $50,000 from the estate of the late Austin Corbin. While not explaining what her relations with the millionaire were, Miss Nelson, who is a handsome Swede about thirty years, alleges that Corbin was a frequent visitor at her apartments, and not long before his death he told her that he had invested $50,000 for her, which would be a provision for her in old age, in the event of his death.

STEAMBOAT SINKS.

The Courier Hits a Bridge and Goes to the Bottom in a Few Minutes—Hogs Drowned.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 31.—The freight steamer Courier, from Maysville, Friday evening struck the false work of the L and N bridge, now being remodeled. A large hole was knocked in her side. The boat was immediately turned in toward the shore, where she sank in about twelve feet of water. A large number of hogs on board were drowned, while others escaped and swam to shore, where they were captured and some of them taken away by denizens of the river front. The Courier's cargo will be almost a total loss. The vessel will be raised.

The absence of safety lights or some one's blunder caused the accident.

There were between fifteen and twenty passengers on the boat, four of whom were women. The entire crew numbered between thirty and forty people, a number of whom were colored women. The women all screamed in chorus when the vessel struck, and their cries could be heard up as far as Second street.

The Courier was built at Freedom, Pa. in 1835. The boat is about 105 feet in length and its capacity is 290 tons. It is licensed to ply between this city and Maysville, a distance of about 65 miles. The Courier was purchased by its present owners from S. M. Gamble, the well-known steamboat owner, of Wheeling, W. Va. A short time ago it was repaired at a cost of $3,000. The Courier left Cincinnati daily at 11 p. m., and was due back here any time between 4 and 8:30 p. m. Friday night's trip to Maysville was made for the dismantled vessel by the packet Dick Brown. The vessel originally cost about $16,000, but is said to be worth only a little over half that amount now.

NITROGLYCERIN EXPLODES.

Scores of Houses in Geneva, Ind., Wrecked—Wagon, Horses and Driver Believed to Have Been Blown to Atoms.

GENEVA, Ind., Oct. 31.—The towns in Indiana and Ohio for miles about here were shaken Saturday morning by the most fearful explosion in the history of the Indiana oil and gas field. The Empire magazine situated half a mile west and north of this city, exploded at 3:45 o'clock.

Seven hundred quarts nitroglycerin, which was stored there, tore the magazine to atoms and wrecked scores of houses in this city.

Hundreds of windows were blown out, walls were cracked and chimneys torn down.

It is reported that a wagon was unloading at the magazine at the time of the explosion. The rumor has not been positively verified, but it is believed that such is the case.

No trace of wagon, horses or driver can be found. They must have been blown into atoms.

A remarkable fact is that the Hercules Torpedo Co.'s magazine, situated only 75 yards from the Empire magazine, did not explode. Twenty-five hundred quarts of explosives were stored in the Hercules magazine, where a wall was blown in.

HUMOROUS THIEF.

A New York Boy Keeps a Diary of His Stealing, and Says He Slept Well.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—Edmund Rose, fat and 15, is a humorous thief. He stole from his employers, Hyman & Jacobus, lawyers, of No. 133 Nassau street, from the very first day he entered their employ as office boy. This was about three weeks ago.

The lad's thefts were principally through forged checks, to which he signed the name of Sol. A. Hyman. When Mr. Hyman surprised Rose in bed, the boy admitted that he was guilty, and at the same time fished out of an ice box a remarkable diary, which he turned over to Mr. Hyman. The diary began: "October 17, Went to work at 9:30 o'clock for Hyman & Jacobus. Stole $8 from Hyman, ate at the Astor House went home and slept well."

Rose seemed to lay particular stress in his diary upon the fact that he always slept well. The diary continued: "October 20—Beat Hyman out of good car fares. Wrote check for $2. Ate at Astor house. Went home and slept well."

The diary showed that the peculations aggregated about $25. Mr. Hyman did not care to prosecute the boy, and he has been allowed to leave New York.

RIVAL CLASSES

Of the Ohio State University Have a Rush—Police Interfere.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 31.—A class rush between the freshmen and sophomores of the State university that promised to end in bloodshed occurred on the university campus Friday afternoon.

The two classes held meetings for organization and issues upon the campus at the same time. The freshmen carried a long, heavy scuffling with which they charged upon the sophomores, using it as a battering ram. Professors who ran up to interfere were rudely brushed aside by the enthusiastic classmen, but police officers, whom President Canfield, after hearing that a meeting was imminent, had called, compelled the freshmen to yield the ram at the point of their revolvers. The leaders of both classes tried to rally the students to mobbing the officers and cries of "Throw him in the lake" and "get a rope" were made. President Canfield had issued a warning against the rush, but the students say the question of supremacy must be fought out yet.

NO CORNER IN MONEY.

The Stringency Was Brought on by Steady Withdrawals.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—Fifteen of the largest banks in New York have arranged a syndicate, or money pool, by which it is intended to prevent the renewal of any such conditions in the money market as developed Thursday. Individual members of the syndicate are not yet named, because since the formation of the pool, applications have been received and are constantly coming in from other banks wishing to join the agreement. On the stock exchange Thursday all day there was such a scarcity of money offered on call as to force rates up to the sensational figures of 100 per cent a year, which naturally resulted in a sharp decline in the stock market. As everybody acquainted with the situation knows, the resources of the banks have been greatly curtailed on account of the general uneasiness in regard to the political situation, and there has been going on for weeks a steady withdrawal on accounts, not only from the savings banks but from all other depository institutions. The present stringency in the money market, therefore, is not unnatural, and there is no foundation whatever for the current foolish talk of a corner in money.
